Mission Statement

Redding Adventist Academy is committed to a mission of Christ-centered teaching, creativity, integrity, intellectual growth, leadership, service, and grace.

Preamble

By attending Redding Adventist Academy you have chosen to grow towards and adopt a Christian Lifestyle. Each student agrees to accept the moral responsibility associated with education in a Christ-centered school, whether on or off campus. Redding Adventist Academy knowingly accepts and retains only those students that have shown their willingness to make this commitment. It is hoped that adherence to this commitment while you are at Redding Adventist Academy will extend beyond the years spent at RAA and become a lifetime commitment to the eternal principles of honor, integrity, and moral action.

- Honor = adherence to a sense of right and wrong
- Integrity = the quality of being of sound moral principles; trustworthiness, honesty and sincerity.
- Moral = capable of making the distinction between right and wrong in conduct

Pledge

As a student of Redding Adventist Academy, I pledge to support the school's efforts to provide a positive, safe and orderly environment by first promising to read, become familiar with, and follow the policies outlined in the school bulletin/handbook, and secondly, by choosing to be a student who both on and off campus:

1. Refuses to use or appear to support the use of tobacco, alcohol, or illicit drugs
2. Acts with integrity, honesty, and morality
3. Endeavors to influence and assist fellow students in these ideals
4. Refrains from inappropriate physical expression/contact
5. Respects the property rights of others and RAA
6. Uses language appropriate to a Christian lifestyle
7. Uses communication methods (including internet/website) in a non-offensive and Christ-centered way
